

SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

Who remembers the good old days when it used to rain every once in a while and sometimes twice in the same period.

Well, every little helps, but we could use a lot more.

The sidewalks around the court house seem to be standing the heat and drought well.

Squirrels are ripe.

Now that Mr. Edison has "questioned" the public, why not Henry Ford, and their pal, Mr. Firestone. Just as long as they don't come through with that old one of which came first the egg or the hen, it will be all right for me. Really Mr. Edison's question, for reasons best known by myself, was interesting to me.

A good two or three days rain would ruin a lot of "nubbins"

While listing places of interest in Indiana, why omit the court house sidewalks. As far as I have been able to ascertain there are none others like them in this big "flat" world. And I know a lot of folks have not seen them.

Well, my wish has come true. A circus is coming to town. And, although it is not one of the "big boys" it's a circus, all right, all right.

SWEETS PREFERRED

The lengthy recital had drawn to a close, ice cream and cake had been served, and the teacher was bidding the students good-by. One of the little performers had brought her small brother with her. As he was about to leave the teacher beamingly said "Well, Bobby, did you enjoy the recital?"

"Yes," answered Bobby, "all but the music."—Liberty Magazine.

SOMETIMES WITH SOUND

Billie is fond of telling his dreams at the breakfast table. One morning thinking to apply an intelligence test I said, "But, Billie, I don't believe you know what a dream is."

Billie's answer came quick and sure: "Yes, I do. It's moving pictures while you're asleep."—Liberty Magazine.

There has been more demand these last few weeks for folks getting on the water wagon, than there was prior to Volstead act days.

Luckily, or rather because of forethoughtfulness, Greencastle is not affected with any shortage of bath material.

Judging from the shortage of the apple crop the doctors are going to have a busy year.

Says he, to me, says he: "This Edison questionnaire, is just making damn liars out of a lot of folks who ordinarily would be truthful.

I saw Indianapolis perform a double header the other night, and really, it had never before dawned on me that perhaps they are playing amateur baseball in the Washington Park. Indianapolis this season. If the team I saw perform, had some good fielding players who could hit a bit they might have good ball team.

Why the ones I saw didn't even show good form at razzing the umpires.

DR. AYLER COMPLETES 31 YEARS OF PRACTICE

Today marks the thirty-first anniversary of successful medical practice in Greencastle by Dr. A. E. Ayler, who came here August 8, 1899, from Washington, D. C. For nearly thirty years Dr. Ayler and family have resided in the same block where they are now located. In recalling his early experiences in Greencastle Dr. Ayler said, "I'll never forget the night Mrs. Ayler and I arrived here. It was pouring rain. We came to Greencastle over the Vandalia and Dr. Henry Ostrom was a passenger on the train. Knowing we were strangers he recommended the Belknap hotel to us. Horse drawn cabs were the mode of travel in those days and the three of us took a cab for town."

Dr. Ayler came to Indiana in July previous to locating here in August and was visiting a doctor in Indianapolis where he was introduced to a Greencastle woman, Mrs. Duy, wife of Judge John X. Duy. After a long talk with her he came to Greencastle to look the town over and then returned in August with his bride.

They took rooms with Mrs. Cutler, mother of Mrs. W. G. Overstreet, who was then living in the house now known as Louest Cottage. For several months business was very dull for the young doctor. The first three months he practiced here he made $15, $17, and $13 respectively. Business began to pick up and the next month he made $75. However, in those times living was cheap, he recalled that three dozen eggs could be bought for a quarter or two pounds of butter for the same price and a sack of flour for forty-five cents. His first patient was the late Mrs. Frank Nelson, mother of James B. Nelson of Indianapolis and in speaking of her, Dr. Ayler remarked that the Nelson family was his early staunchest friends.

After a residence of several months with Mrs. Cutler they moved to the home owned by Mrs. W. L. Denman, corner of Vine and Poplar street, then to a house located where Dr. W. R. Hutcheson now lives. A short time after buying the house just back of his office from the late Mrs. Howard Briggs. After a residence here of several years Dr. Ayler built the house where he and Mrs. Ayler now reside and in 1908 built the office where he practices medicine.

MERCURY DROPS LOWER FRIDAY REPORT SHOWS

TEMPERATURE AT NOON TODAY WAS 95 DEGREES—A LIGHT BREEZE AND PARTIAL CLOUDINESS BRING RELIEF

THUNDER SHOWERS PROMISED

Figures Compiled By Professor E. R. Smith Show That the Summer of 1930 is One of the Five Hottest summers in 60 Years

A light breeze and partial cloudiness brought some relief from the intense heat to sweltering population of Greencastle and Putnam County today. According to the Government thermometer at the University observatory the mercury at noon today had climbed to the 95 degree mark from the 72, which was the minimum for Thursday night. The maximum temperature reached Thursday was 101 degrees.

Light rain that fell between 3 and 3:30 o'clock Friday morning cooled the air but was of little use as far as the drought scorched crops of Putnam county are concerned. According to Professor E. R. Rice, who is in charge of the observatory rainfall in Greencastle last night was .04 of an inch.

The Indiana weather report promises little relief for southern and central Indiana Saturday although a lower temperature is in store for the northern portion of the Hoosier state according to the bureau. Another light thundershower is promised for tonight for Greencastle and Putnam county.

According to figures compiled by Professor Smith from reports on file at observatory this summer is among the hottest on record for Greencastle and vicinity. The records go back sixty years.

The first day of summer temperature of 90 degrees or over this year the figures show was June 21. Since that date there have been 22 days with a temperature of 90 degrees or over. Of those, 11 have shown a temperature of 100 or more, the maximum height to which the mercury has soared this summer was the 106 degree mark. This was on July 28.

A comparison with records since 1871 made by Professor Smith shows some interesting facts. In only seven out of the sixty years has there been summers with over 32 days of 90 degree weather. These years were 1871, 1894, 1895, 1901, 1912, 1914, and 1919.

In only four of these there were as many days of 90 degree weather in June and July as there was this year according to professor Smith's comparison. There were 24 days in which the mercury climbed to 90 degrees or more in June and July of this year. These four years were 1894, 1901, 1912 and 1914. In 1901 the month of July had 24 days of 90 degrees weather as compared with 18 this year.

The suit asking for a receivership was filed in the Putnam circuit court Tuesday morning. The bank alleged that the Canning company was bankrupt and unable to meet its financial obligations.

On Monday evening a group of 40 or 45 former employees of the concern who had not been paid for work done gathered near the plant and made a demonstration. It is said that threats were made to "burn" the place.

In its suit the bank alleged that the company was bankrupt and unable to meet payment of operating expenses and asked that a receiver be appointed so that adjustments could be made and the plant continue in operation.

RESTORE ORDER AFTER LYNCHING OF TWO NEGROES

CROWD OF 10,000 PERSONS STORM COUNTY JAIL AT MARION AND HANG TWO OF FOUR HELD FOR MURDER AND RAPE

OTHERS SPIRITED AWAY

Emergency Squads Rushed to Mob Ruled City From Indianapolis And Nearby Towns—Marion's Negro Quarter Spends Night Of Terror

MARION, Ind., Aug. 8.—(INS)—Order was restored in Marion today after a night of horror during which a mob of 10,000 persons stormed the county jail and lynched two of the four negroes held for the fatal shoot of Claude Deeter, 23, and for the attack of his girl companion, Mary Ball, 19.

Sheriff Jacob Campbell mastered the situation at 5 a. m., today when his deputies finally succeeded in dispersing the crowd and cutting down the bodies of Thomas Shipp, 19, and Abram Smith, 19, both of Marion. The negroes had been lynched on the court house lawn.

The authorities managed to spirit the two other negroes held in the shooting case, to Huntington, Ind., for safekeeping. The negroes were Herbert Cameron, 16, and Robert Sullivan, 18.

Th mob was said to have formed at Fairmount near here, where young Deeter lived. About 600 men, many of them under effects of liquor, and heavily armed, composed the nucleus of the mob. As this force drove up to the jail, the number was augmented by local persons.

The attack was so well organized that the officers were unable to prevent the seizure of the prisoners.

As soon as the sheriff saw what was happening he called to neighboring cities for help. Within a short time police riot squads from Huntington, Logansport, Peru, Anderson, Indianapolis and other cities poured into the city. Late last night these officers, armed with machine guns, tear gas bombs and riot guns had surrounded the court house. Fifty state policemen also were mobilized here.

The mob surged about the court house lawn most of the night and prevented the removal of the bodies of the lynched negroes. Leaders of the mob shouted that the bodies must remain up until noon today as an example to other negroes in Marion.

Meanwhile hundreds of terrified negroes banded themselves together in the black belt here and armed themselves, prepared to resist further reprisals. No move toward the negro district, however, was made by the mob last night. Today the mob spirit had died down and the authorities did not believe there would be further trouble.

After the hanging the mob attempted to burn the body of Shipp which dangled from a height of 25 feet. Rubbish and packing boxes were piled under the corpse and ignited but the flames did not go high enough to cremate the body.

During the height of the riot the father of Miss Ball tried to reason with the mob but was beaten into unconsciousness.

TWO NEGROES ARE TAKEN TO STATE REFORMATORY

The prisoners were Herbert Cameron, 16, and Robert Sullivan, 18.

The sheriff was accompanied by Deputy Sheriff James Little and a number of other armed men. The (Please Turn to Page 2) Continuation C

We Have Lived True To Our Pledge

When the present management assumed control of the Greencastle Water Works system, it pledged itself to give Greencastle the best water service possible and to be prepared to give—

An Abundance of Water at A Time of Emergency

In order to be able to fulfill its promises, the Water Works Co., immediately made improvements at the pumping station by providing better pumping facilities; lowering the suction lines so as to be assured of an unlimited supply of water and repaired the water reservoir dam, so as to be able to conserve the available supply.

Demand Increased But No Water Shortage For Greencastle

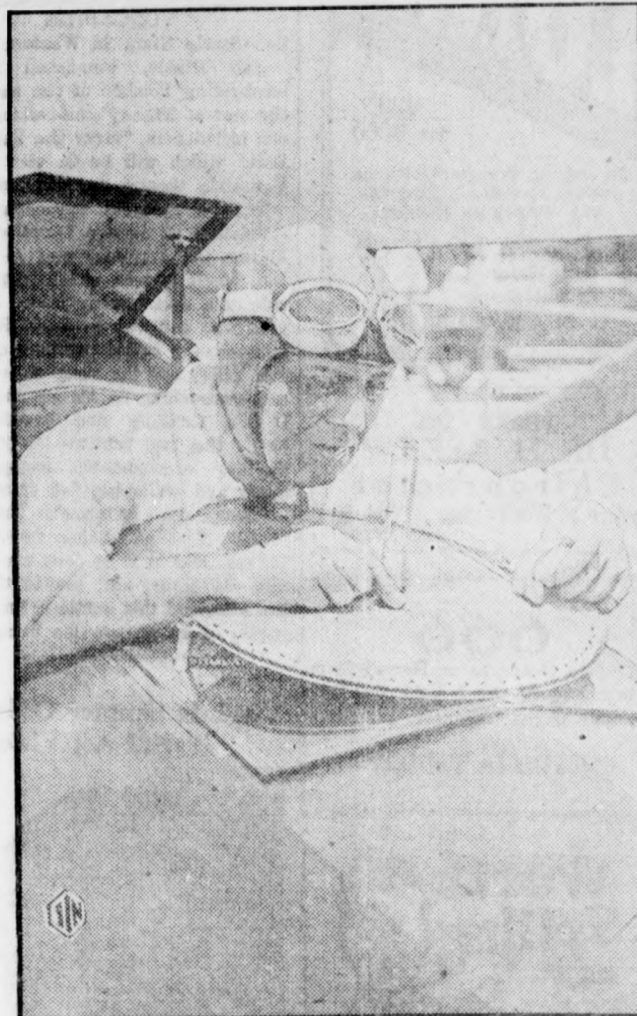

Today, with a greatly increased consumption of water, occasioned by a demand for water to supply the Lone Star Cement Co., plant, whose private supply of water is exhausted, with sufficient water to operate, and with cities and towns all over the state suffering from water shortage because of the continued drought; Greencastle has an abundant supply of pure cold water, with no indications that continued drought will bring a shortage.

Your Co-Operation Is Appreciated

This company appreciates the co-operation of the people of Greencastle; it is pleased to have been able to render you the high class service you deserve and glad to inform you that Greencastle is in no danger of a water shortage. We further pledge to lend our best efforts to serve you as efficiently in the future as we have in the past.

WINS PRIZE MONEY IN A. A. A. RACE ON STOCK TIRES

WHEN Dave Evans, nationally famous race driver, came to a stop, a high prize winner in the championship A. A. A. race at Pittsburgh in July, he was one of two out of the dozen race drivers who had not been forced to stop at the pits for tire repairs or replacement during the race.

The only two cars in the race which did not have to stop because of tire trouble were equipped with stock tires—General Dual Balloon Blow-out Proof tires—while all the other cars were equipped with special racing tires of one kind or another. Many of them blew out, were punctured, or went flat from some other cause of tire failure.

In the above picture, five of the 12 cars in the race are shown negotiating a turn on the half-mile board track at Bridgeville, a Pittsburgh suburb. Below is shown Dave Evans in his front-drive Miller Special racing car after the race. With him is James Campbell, Pittsburgh distributor for The General Tire.

THE THEATERS

VONCASTLE
Bob Steele Stars in Western Talkie
Bob Steele, two-fisted fighter, hard-riding hombre of the screen, is the star of Tiffany's all-talking Western melodrama, "Near the Rainbow's End," which will be on view at the Voncastle theatre for Saturday only. With a splendid supporting cast, consisting of Louise Lorraine, Lafe McKee, Al Ferguson and Al Hewston, Steele is seen at his best in the role of a determined young cattleman who sets out to settle the feud between the cattle ranchers of Hidden Valley and the sheep raisers who are encroaching on his grazing land. It is a thrilling and breathtaking battle the two factions stage, with thrilling horsemanship, snappy gun fights and walloping fist encounters. "Near the Rainbow's End" is Steele's first all-talking feature for Tiffany, and in it he does more than talk—he sings, and proves that he has mastered this gentle art as thoroughly as he masters his horses.

One of the most effective ways of relieving the depressed condition of business and agriculture would be to revise the "vicious" rates of the Grundy tariff act, according to Senator Swanson (above), Democrat, from Virginia. ## Joyous Foot Bath Then Lift Out CORNS

Root and All — Out To Stay!

Two tablespoonfuls of that amazingly refreshing and foot invigorating Radox to one gallon of water makes a footbath which after 3 or 4 night's soaking (20 minutes) lifts out aching, maddening corns, roots and all.

Radox softens the hard outer layers of corn—and oxygen which Radox liberates, enters the pores, each night penetrating further and further, carrying the salts right to root of corn which can be lifted out bodily. Wonderful to take out pain and bruising and refresh tired feet!

Get a package of Radox at Mullins or any drugstore and know the joyous comfort of corn and callous free feet—Radox is the modern, scientific method to remove corns which completely eliminates old fashioned plaster, dangerous cutting, skin destroying acids and obsolete methods.
